

Calcium Bentonite Clay Tips & Testimonials from Perry A~

It's Perry A~ and I am back. Though we sold the Living Clay business in 2015, I have not retired from educating people to the plethora of uses of Calcium Bentonite Clay and answering their questions (512-773-0335 perrya@perrya.com) in an effort to understand this complicated natural substance. As I promised I will maintain the free clay information website www.BentoniteClayInfo.com. Since retiring from the webinars due to ongoing increasing expenses, I am picking up the slack by sending tips, articles, suggested protocols and new testimonials to share the magic of Bentonite Clay.

For a definitive guide to understanding and using clay I recommend my newest book Calcium Bentonite Clay Nature's pathway to Healing – Balance, Detox, Stimulate, Alkalize. You can order from www.TheClayBook.com or Amazon.

Today's Tips & Testimonials is about An Autistic Child's First Clay Bath Experience

I want to give you an update...after a horrific day with Max at his gymnastics class (it's for kids with special needs, and he loves it, but has been having a lot of behavioral problems in it lately. I almost burst into tears in front of the instructor. He was really nice about it, but I still felt like a jerk for getting all teary), he took a LONG nap. After he got up, I told him we were going to do a special bath, he was resistant a bit. He paused before going into the tub. It was very cloudy even though I only used a cup--I was worried. He said, "The water's blue". It wasn't but I went with it! He got in and loved it. I was really surprised. And during the bath he was extremely talkative...do you think there could be an effect that quickly? And the rest of the night he talked so much, so much, I was stunned. He actually tried to draw a picture! He has never done that, he has sort of low muscle tone with his hands so he has trouble holding writing implements, but he tried to draw a ship, which turned into a dinosaur. Normally he gives me crayons and tells me to draw, he has NEVER attempted to draw a picture by himself, it was so exciting. I even went down in the basement and one point, and he was at the top of the stairs and actually said, "C'mon, I want to color!" Perry, it was so natural and casual, I was amazed. He also had me draw a car and was telling me all these crazy things for the picture--he wanted a cat driving, with a pig and a dog in the backseat, and a star and moon in the backseat, as well as characters from Thomas the Tank Engine...I asked him where they were driving to, he kept changing the answer from the carnival, to the store, the toy store, gymnastics, etc. It was so exciting it was like he made up a little story. Last night was one of the best nights of my life. Today, I asked Vinny if he wanted a regular bath, and then a magic bath. He said "magic bath!" - Diana P.
